We are

- an autonomous, feminist information and counseling center run by and for female migrants and refugees
- against any form of discrimination, including anti-Semitism, Islamophobia, antigayism, racism and sexism
- a transcultural team that speaks Amharic, Bulgarian, English, German, Korean, Persian, Polish, Spanish, Tigrinya, and Turkish. We bring in translators for counselling sessions in other languages.
- a member of "Der Paritätische" and "KOK" (committee against trafficking of women and violence against women in the process of migration)
- linked with other women's organizations, both regionally and nationally

You can support our work with a donation and we are grateful for any support.

We encourage you to become a member of agisra e.V. with a regular contribution of at least 5 euro/month.
